

Xi'an International University, China

Study Abroad Experience of a Lifetime!

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Spend a semester abroad in Xi'an (pronounced "shee-on"), China - one of the four great ancient capitals of China - and experience first-hand the rich culture and history that China has to offer while earning college credit! Sponsored by the College of Lake County (CLC) and the Illinois Consortium for International Studies and Programs (ICISP), students will study at Xi'an International University (XAIU), a well-respected university, with ties to other academic institutions in the United States and around the world. While at XAIU, students will have the opportunity to study Chinese language and take other classes in English from XAIU faculty and accompanying faculty members from the College of Lake County. As part of the program, students will also have the chance to visit seven historical and culturally significant sites in and around Xi'an, such as the Terra Cotta Warriors and the Big Goose Pagoda. Students will also play an important role in sharing their American culture with Chinese students via the newly established CLC-XAIU American Culture Center housed at the University.

Why Study in China?

You might be wondering what makes studying in China a better option than other study abroad programs in, say, England or France. There are a multitude of reasons why you might want to take this option more seriously than other programs, and these are listed for you below:

- One-fifth of the world's population currently lives in China.
- China's economy is ranked 3rd in the world.
- The number of non-Chinese natives who speak proficient Chinese is increasing exponentially each year.
- Chinese companies are booming, even growing to the extent that some companies are trying to take over major multinationals.
- More and more companies from across the globe desire business with China.
- China has a history that covers over 4,000 years, making it one of the oldest societies in the world.
- China represents a giant consumer market, with over 1.3 billion consumers.

STUDY ABROAD MYTHS

Misinformation and outright falsehoods keep many students from even considering studying abroad each year. Below are some of the most common myths students believe about studying abroad, and, more importantly, facts that debunk them.

MYTH #1: I can't study in China—I don't speak Chinese!

You don't need to have ANY Chinese proficiency to study at XAIU! Many courses are available in English. Of course, if you would like to take Chinese coursework while in China, courses are available for all levels of proficiency, from beginner to advanced.

MYTH #2: I won't graduate on time if I study in China.

There are a multitude of classes available to you that will help you finish your program within your desired timeframe.

MYTH #3: I don't have enough money to study abroad.

The XAIU program is very affordable, particularly in comparison with other study abroad programs. Further, scholarships and financial aid are available in many cases to help students cover costs.

MYTH #4: I can always travel later, once I have a job and am earning money.

Once you are locked into a job and responsibilities, it is very difficult to get away for any length of time. Further, independent travel does not offer the comfort, safety, or experience of a trip to China organized through the College of Lake County.

MYTH #5: Study abroad is not for everyone.

No matter what your major, age, gender, ethnic background, or interests, studying in China will benefit you personally, professionally, and academically.

"My experience in China was the best kind of culture shock, an intense and enjoyable experience that taught me so much about Chinese culture and allowed me to see my own society with new eyes."

—Patrick Gonder, CLC faculty

"Students will have an extraordinary experience at this vibrant university in Xi'an. The beauty of XAIU's campus is a symbol of the institution's rich tradition and history as well as the continuation of academic excellence for the future."

—Tammy Mireles, International Student Recruitment Coordinator
