

ICISP Carlow College Study Abroad Summer 2020 Faculty Liaison Information and Application

The Illinois Consortium for International Studies and Programs is pleased to provide a professional development opportunity for faculty members of ICISP-member institutions. The Faculty Liaison position at Carlow College in Carlow, Ireland is designed to provide faculty from member institutions the opportunity to experience first-hand living, teaching, and interacting with colleagues in an international setting. This exciting and popular opportunity is available for summer 2020. Individuals interested in applying should review all program materials provided to students.

General Information

Faculty members selected for this appointment will be provided housing in Lennon House, the residence hall on the Carlow College campus. The faculty accommodations include a private room, and use of a kitchen and bathroom facilities. Students will live in the same residence hall, and daily contact in Lennon House between students and the Faculty Liaison during the course of daily activities is frequent. Because of the nature of the accommodations, faculty members may bring a spouse/partner depending upon Lennon House availability, but Carlow College cannot provide housing for children of the faculty liaison. Applicants to the Faculty Liaison position at Carlow College should consider the living arrangements prior to submitting an application.

Please note that a minimum number of ICISP students must sign up for the summer program to run. Faculty selected for the summer program will be notified by the end of March if this minimum requirement has been met. Before applying, please confirm that this condition is an acceptable one for you and your college.

Faculty Liaison Responsibilities

Faculty assigned to this program will be expected to fulfill the following responsibilities:

- Facilitate breakout and discussion sections with the Irish Experience class.
- Prepare and deliver a minimum of 1 workshop/presentation to the wider Carlow College community in the faculty's subject of expertise.
- Oversee and provide leadership for the program and student service needs of students in Ireland.
- Assist ICISP students with the adjustment to living in a different culture.
- Assist with coordination of activities and field trips of the academic program with appropriate officers of Carlow College.
- Attend all sessions of The Irish Experience Class.
- Serve as chaperone on all field trips.
- Monitor students' independent travel.
- Perform administrative duties of the program as needed.

- Provide advisement to students as needed.
- Hold on-campus office hours.
- Through the appropriate officers of Carlow College, assist in solving problems which arise for ICISP personnel.
- Provide all appropriate information and communicate regularly with the program coordinator and ICISP.
- Attend the student/faculty orientation prior to assignment (usually held one Saturday in April).
- Assist with recruiting future participants.
- Assist with future faculty/student orientation sessions.
- Communicate regularly with the ICISP Carlow study abroad program coordinator.

One of the primary responsibilities of the Faculty Liaison is to assist the ICISP students attending Carlow College. As such, the Faculty Liaison is required to restrict personal travel to those times when classes and/or cultural excursions are not in session. Faculty members should not commit to teaching any on-line courses at their home institution while assigned to Carlow College. Faculty assigned to Carlow College will be required to sign an agreement verifying that the above responsibilities are understood and agreed upon.

Compensation

The Faculty Liaison will agree to the following compensation arrangements:

- Salary: Paid by home college, as determined by home institution policies.
- Housing: Carlow College provides housing free of charge to individual faculty members on the college campus from the start of term to the official end of term.
- Airfare and transportation to host institution: Roundtrip economy international airfare is paid by ICISP up to $1100 USD. Transportation to/from the U.S. departure airport is the responsibility of the Faculty Liaison.
- Extra Allowance: Optional by home college
