

Salzburg College Spring Session 2022

January 30 – April 29

The Spring Session at Salzburg College offers an introduction to various aspects of Austrian and European culture. Most courses emphasize the special opportunities provided by the Salzburg setting. At Salzburg College, classroom work, field study, and academic travel complement one another.

Courses

The European Experience (3 hrs)

An introduction to Austrian history, politics and culture.

The European Union (3 hrs)

An introduction to the process and institutions of European political and economic integration.

German (3-4 hrs)

Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced levels.

Global Marketing (3 hrs)

An examination of the global business environment.

History of European Art (3 hrs)

An introduction to the study of European art history influenced by the works of art and architecture that students will encounter during their semester in Europe.

Intercultural Communications (3 hrs)

A look at how culture interrelates with and effects the communication process.

International Public Relations (3 hrs)

An exploration of the theory and research related to the practice of public relations across cultural and national boundaries.

An introduction to the music of the Classical and Romantic periods.

Beginning Photography (3 hrs)

An exploration of the role which photography plays in our society, both in its contemporary use in the digital age as well its place in art history.

Printmaking (3 hrs)

Students will work under the auspices of a well-known local artist and develop a thematically specific project.

Students are expected to enroll in 12 credit hours. Salzburg College reserves the right to cancel a course if less than 5 students enroll.

Excursions

The day trip to Munich (Germany) allows students to complete the first phase of cultural adaptation and to learn to navigate a larger European city. The day trip to Vienna, Austria's historical capital, will provide a broad range of experiences related to history, art, music, and modern life. In addition, a variety of local excursions constitute an integral part of the academic program. There is also ample time set aside for independent travel.

Housing

To maximize cultural involvement, students live in Salzburg College's new downtown serviced student dormitory where breakfast is served. Grocery stores, markets, pharmacies, coffee shops, and restaurants are all in easy walking distance. Due to COVID-19, family accommodation is not available until further notice.

Program Cost: $9,284

The program fee includes tuition, room and board, course related excursions, day trips to Munich, Vienna, and the Salzkammergut, and various local excursions. The fee does not include passport fees or transatlantic transportation. Additional fees on behalf of the home institution may apply.

Application deadline: October 15, 2020
